E-Scape 2020' is a collection of exclusive tracks from artists scheduled to perform at E-Scape 2020 which was cancelled due to Covid-19. The festival was to have been a charity event in aid of MENCAP and so proceeds from the E-Scape 2020 album are being donated to the charity along with monies collected through a Just Giving page. Details on how to donate can be found via the link below.

E-Scape 2020 is a varied collection of spacey electronic music combined with some gently rhythmic sequencer offerings that flow effortlessly as a cohesive, and very chilled, electronic music album.

The Garwin Project opens with the Pink Floyd inspired 'Cloudburst'. Next up is VoLt with the gently upbeat 'Strands of Tranquility' before Ian Boddy presents his ominously rhythmic remix of 'Shrine'.

Carys presents her first solo EM piece, the darkly evocative 'Veni, Vidi, Lacrimavi', before The Garwin Project's return with his second offering, a great slice of UK electronica, 'Run Four'. 'House of Chimes' by Robert Fox slows things right down again, but then 'Sigh' by Ron Boots picks things up with another gently rhythmic, sequencer inspired track.

Next up is Code Indigo with a slice of previously unreleased contemporary chill-out music, 'MeltDown (The Chill-Out Remix)'. VoLt returns with the gorgeous 'Kinematic Star' and David Wright closes the album with the optimistic 'Stars Dream On'.

E-Scape 2020 is a varied and compelling compilation of melodic, laid back electronica that is sure to appeal to fans of traditional sequencer styled electronic music.

===== Reviews =====

39944 23fish - Future ?

23Fish - Future? "Esperando, Esperando" starts with ambient 1950's style sci-fi b-movie effects, and makes me feel like I am trapped inside a UFO waiting to be probed by aliens. Tron effects and metallic shimmers of sound and a resonating gong effects, and the atmosphere builds gradually and is like in the engine room of a UFO. After almost 6 minutes a rhythm is introduced and accompanied by organ effects. The rhythm speeds up and the strange journey of sounds and atmospherics take me to other worlds. By 9 minutes I'm completely enthralled by this mesmeric mix of a groovy different kind of weird. Sequencing is then injected into the rhythm and we are accelerating at quite a pace, fantastic stuff! By 14 minutes we are in full flow sequencer heaven with arpeggios of notes keeping my body moving as if en-'tranced'. It all disappears beneath the UFO engine room sounds as they are re-introduced and we fall into sci-fi weirdness to end this epic 19 minute track! "Debod" sounds like alien-ethnic mutant voices are singing prayers, calling to their Gods, accompanied by meditative ambience. A very spiritual atmosphere is achieved. I imagine being in a colossal shrine within a mountain chamber. After 5 minutes hypnotic sequencer patterns come forth with a fast paced rhythm, then Kraftwerk-like effects, and robotics take over reminiscent of 'The Man Machine' album. More effects are added to this futuristic music. David Parades' guitar playing and effects work to extremely awesome effect, and the rhythms and sequencer layers are amazing. I imagine hurtling along at a million miles an hour on an alien world in a technologically advanced metropolis. Wow! The piece ends at over 23 minutes with majestic atmosphere, guitar restraints, and Rick Wakeman style keyboard wizardry! "La habitacion del nino loco" starts as if I am hearing people from an underwater point of view, some piano notes are random, and I imagine some nightmare madness scenario in an asylum in a horror film. Strange sounds like chimes of glass and steel join the randomness of the piano and give me visions of a person mentally unhinged, and in a disturbed environment. Huge organ sounds then saturate the air...not for the lighthearted. "Who are you?" starts with huge futuristic engine-like sounds starting up. Sounds and effects drench your ears with awesome power, then a rhythm kicks in and builds with intensity, then guitar licks and effects and electronic effects make this interesting, and followed by a hypnotic sequencing, the guitar adding drama! The music peaks and falls and peaks again, layers coming and disappearing. Strangely, I felt as though I was in the wild west of America. "Quarantine" is a gorgeous piano melody, a bit of sadness, reflective, but also with hope and strength. A beautiful and stunning way to end an impressive and varied album. Essential listening pleasure.

SHIPPING:

Due to the fact that we use a special shipping service that provides the shipping of parcels etc we don't have to adjust the shipping prices at this moment. One of the reasons is that because of you our costumers we can keep these prices so low. With over 1500 parcels shipped last year we can stay in the lowest shipping prices!

I am glad we are one of the few suppliers of EM that did not have to raise their shipping prices. So for the 4rth year in a row they stay the same!!
