

----- GENERAL NEWS -----

Hi All

We had a great time yesterday at Electronic Circus.

Thanks to Frank en Herman and their team for their great effort to put on again a fantastic festival.

This was the 9th edition and might I say on of the best.

It started off with a great set by Fryderyk Jona who introduced his new CD "Warm Sequencing".

Fryderyk's music is driven by Schulze and Berlin School. Great music that really came to full bloom during this concert. His new CD is now also in stock, listen to Dreamscape for an impression, but if you missed EC then you missed this great performance!

I regret to say I missed the second concert because we had our diner at that time.

But the 3rd concert was by a new act I never seen or heard before, Metroland!!

A Belgian Duo that makes music in the vein of Kraftwerk!! And in a great way.

This was fast melodic and powerful with great visuals with every song!

We did their Merchandising so they could concentrate on the performance.

And after their set the T-Shirts, CD,s and 12"" flew of the stand.

I could not resist to get them in the catalog. If you love Kraftwerk then you will really enjoy this!!

And then came Ulrich Schnauss, what a musicians, this music is vast, wide precise and so involving that it was a treat to hear it. (Although a bit loud!)

Ulrich made this a rememberable day. So much energy and musicality!!

I got a nice gift from him, his brand new CD release that will be released on the 4th of November. But that gives me the chance to play a track for you all on Dreamscape radio!!

And last but not least Hans Joachim Roedelius, history and present day on stage.

I only saw the very first half hour bit it was magic. His music is intriguing.

Provocative and sensitive! If the second part was as good as what I heard this was a treat for the audience!

It was also good to meet all who where there. We had some cool conversations and we also booked the first act for E-Day 2017 :-) No none of the acts who played on electronic Circus but I sure you will love who I booked as first act :-)
So a great festival and I would say up to number 10!!

During this Electronic Circus festival we saw a good set of new releases. But the JUXTAPOSITION THE OIRSCHOT CONCERT (dvd) gr-227 is of coarse for me and John Kerr very special it is our very first real DVD!! "JUXTAPOSITION The Oirschot Concert" was recorded live during E-Day 2016 with guest appearances by John Dyson, Frank Dorittke, Jeffrey Haster Bas Broekhuis and Harold v.d. Heijden. The recording was done from the Master desk in a stereo Wave file and additional audience recordings are from "illegal recordings by Andre Stoker and Niko Olofsen" thanks for them it made my life much easier :-) (Ron)

The filming was done by Niko Olofsen and his Son on 5 Samsung Phones. So although the quality is not solid 4K I think it is a remarkable achievement. The video was Tangenized (extra enhancements added) and edited by Niko Olofsen. We think he did a fabulous job on this with the material he had!!

John and I would like to thanks John Dyson, Frank Dorittke, Jeffrey Haster Bas Broekhuis and Harold v.d. Heijden for their remarkable performances during this concert. And if you keep in mind that all rehearsals where split (Yes we had NO full band rehearsal prior to the day it self which gave us about 15 minutes of rehearsal time!!) we are blessed with these 5 brilliant musicians. We hope you enjoy it.

And the first Groove GR-1000 series editions are released!!

Arcane - Automaton - GR-1001

A great Berlin School/Ambient album full of atmosphere and sounds made entirely with layers of self generative modular synth atmospheres, sequences, vintage Fx, and Drums, to musically mimic the self propelled nature of the Automaton.

Peters, Martin - Angels of Nowhere - GR-1002

Martin Peters is one of the members of Beyond Berlin and this album is a great treat for me because it contains one of the finest EM tracks I heard the last 10 years.

A New Day is a gem! A song that gives me goose bumps each time I can listen to this again and again!!

So now you know what you can expect on the GR-1000 series. Known and unknown and lesser known musicians will be featured here at a special price that even makes most downloads more expensive :-)

The GR-1000 series are printed CD's (NO CDR!!) with a wallet (Cardboard) as cover.

This makes them easy to ship, and less expensive to produce because we can limited to 300 copies.

Mind you the CDs are NOT Limited!! We will offer these CDs for only € 11.75.

But we have something special for these, you can subscribe to the GR-1000 releases.

And when you do then you get them for only € 8.90 !! That is less then most downloads!

The game is that you take all releases of the GR-1000 numbers until further notice!.

Be assured these GR-1000 CD's will contain GREAT music with known but also unknown artists.

Just to give you an idea, the coming artists on this series are Serge Devadder, Ron Boots and some exciting new names like The Heisenberg Compensators!!

You can always stop a subscription but then you are not allegeable for the discount for the next 3 releases!! We hope to introduce through this way good Electronic musicians and music that would normally never have the chance to release a real CD and the possibility to get support from a label like Groove because of the normal costs!!

===== R E V I E W S =====

67691 Wollo, Erik - Star

Between the borders of a land of ice and the most white petit point in the horizons of the cosmos, a big humming roams while being flogged by the bites of sound stars. Heavy, this ambiospherical introduction opens Erik Wollo's the last performance at the famous Star's End radio show of 2015. This time, the Scandinavian electronic bard makes counterweight to Silent Currents 3 by spreading an immense mosaic of soundscapes where the breezes of the North and their haloes of hoarfrost infiltrate the whispers of the caves of ice. "Star's End 2015 (Silent Currents 4)" is doubtless the most quiet show of the series with linear and minimalist synth lines which intertwine their slow ambient arcs with some fine astral modulations in their caresses. We can hear the cosmos buzzing peacefully here as well as a thick cloud of seraphic voices, sometimes even a choir, which get lost in the hollow winds whistled by the high ice-cold tops. The whole thing forg e s immense sound waves which always leave cosmic residues before returning in cosmos. Layers of more seraphic voices swallow their rollings at around the 20th minute, freeing a more bright corridor where cavort crystal clear keys which wait only for a shadow of rhythm in order to take life. These small sequenced pearls gambol around and seem to shiver in the cold underground rivers of the Scandinavian caves, except that their brightness is too weak to make take out the rhythm of its den of serenity. It's as peaceable than soothing. The movement remains black and crumbles its minutes to the meter while that quite slowly is spreading the night over the shadows of Wollo in the studios of Star's End on WXPN-FM in Philadelphia. We arrive at the point of 30 minutes and the hollow breezes put on their wings another tone. That of a guitar that Erik Wollo caresses slowly with an Ebow, forging tears which get lost in our sense of hearing as were the ones of a synth. A suspended river makes it s bed of sequences glittering which is singing with the sighs of the Ebow and this fusion of voice and of breezes which decorate the ambiances of "Silent Currents 4". A structure of minimalist rhythm makes skip the waterfall of sequences, structuring so an ambient rhythm which rings and resounds in layers of distant voices and in the shadows of the six-strings. This brief phase of aerial rhythm is swallowed by the anger of the winds which scold such as a distant machine of the cosmos, preparing the rather tribal rhythm which brings us to 50th minute. It's another short phase which fades out in rustles and in these immense layers of winds which accompany this quiet travel of our subconscious fed on serenity in the valley of Erik Wollo's silent currents.
